ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.

Big Triple Feature Bill Today—End Bennett in The Vamp, Six Part Paramount Picture, William Desmond in Closing In, Five Part Triangle Comedy Drama, and the Official U. S. Government Allied War Review.

For the first half of this week The Vamp, a superb six act Paramount photoplay starring charming Enid Bennett, produced under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince, will be the feature of our program.

ENID BENNETT
"The Vamp"

This picture tells the story of a patriotic young woman who exercises her vampirish talents to frustrate the plot of German spies to foment a strike with eminent success. This is one of the most captivating roles Miss Bennett ever has essayed.

The photoplay is a beautiful one and there are many tense situations which hold the interest to the last scene. It is filled with life and animation and will prove intensely interesting to old and young alike. Miss Bennett is supported by fine screen players, chief among whom is Melbourne MacDowell, the famous interpreter of Sardou roles, Robert McKim, Douglas MacLean, Charles French and others.

The other features on this bill are William Desmond, the popular Triangle star, in Closing In, a comedy good comedy drama in five parts, and the Official U. S. Allied War Review, showing the American boys and their gallant allies marching to victory.

AUDITORIUM.

Tyrone Power, the Distinguished Actor, in The Planter, on Today's Bill.

Tyrone Power, virile and convincing, illustrating of fighting types, who played Basso in Henry Irving's last performance at the Lyceum theatre in London, and whose Brutus opposite William Faversham's Antony was a speaking stage classic, is the power that makes The Planter, a new Mutual special production, dramatically distinguished. Mr. Power plays the difficult role of Ludwig Hertzler, the southern Mexican rubber planter, with an amazing comprehension of the character requirements, and, moreover, does it in harmony with his quite unusual surroundings. Only a really great artist could grasp the atmosphere of the slave driving rubber plantation and portray the character of Hertzler so convincingly.

Tyrone Power is a great actor. He dominates the rubber jungle drama by sheer force of his dramatic conception and execution. Ludwig Hertzler is a photoplay classic. He is one of the strongest human characters on the motion picture screen.

Charlie Chaplin in Easy Street and the very latest Screen Telegrams completes an extraordinary program.

BROAD THEATRE.

Antonio Moreno and Dorlandia in The Nautilus, Adapted from Kipling's Famous Book, Feature for Today and Tuesday.

Co-starred with Antonio Moreno in the great Pathé play, The Nautilus, by Rudyard Kipling, which will be shown at the Broad theatre today and Tuesday, is Dorlandia, the famous Broadway woman of most remarkable personality, who has achieved noteworthy success as an exotic dancer in New York and in this picture proves that she is an actress of exceptional ability. When you see her on the screen, if you do not already know her history, you will at once ask "Who is she, anyway?" for her appearance and her manner are both most striking. She is unlike anybody you ever saw before in a motion picture. It would be difficult to describe her. She is just Dorlandia.

The Nautilus gives an insight into Kipling's India that is remarkable. It has been superbly produced with many great sets erected for the picture at large expense.

Other pictures on the bill include the last chapter of The Eagle's Eye and the latest war news in the Hearst-Pathé weekly.

BRIEF STATE NEWS

VERNON.—Louis Gillespie has sold a 35 acre farm in Vernon to Isaac and Sophie Cohen of Talcoville.

Hartford.—Supt. G. W. Hamilton, head of Hartford's fire alarm system, has been informally notified that the board last week of his desire for retirement this fall.

Rocky Hill.—Miss Elia Helena Chase of Rocky Hill has been awarded the first prize in a contest conducted by a New York paper for a song.

Meriden.—The state park commissioners have decided to erect an 80-foot tower on the peak similar to the one now on East peak and work will soon be started, it is announced.

Danbury.—The annual Friends' meeting will be held at the old Friends' meeting house at Peach lake Sunday, Aug. 18, at 8 o'clock. Mary Trivilla, William W. Cooke and other speakers are expected to be present.

Southington.—Arrangements have been completed for the transmission of mail from Southington to points behind the line in France. Miss Minnie Winn and Edgar C. Wilson are the committee in charge of this particular work.

Enfield.—A dozen tomatoes stolen by Frank Frey of Springfield from the farm of Patrick Manning at Thompsonville commanded high prices when Frey made settlement in Enfield town court and was fined $15 and costs totalling $25.61.

Meriden.—Considerable damage is being done in Meriden by gray squirrels, according to numerous complaints made by residents to Mayor King and Chief Bowen. It is claimed the animals are eating shingles on houses, and have gnawed holes in awnings and curtains.

Hartford.—James Farrell, coachman for the late Marshall Jewell and for the late Governor Wolcott, and for Penn Lumber company as teamster, has retired from active work and will live with his daughter on South Water street. He has worked with horses for 35 years and prides himself that in all these years of driving he has never had an accident.
